Social Change Through Transformative Education

"This course forced me to evaluate my own privilege and reflect on the biases and assumptions I've held throughout my life."

- Outside Student,
Southern Connecticut State University

"The Inside-Out program provided me a pathway to reconnect with the world."

-Joe Schwartz, former inside student at FCI-Loretto

"Inside-Out courses leave you more informed about particular questions and topics than when you arrived, but more than any of that, they give you an orientation, a way of engaging with the world, a way of thinking about ideas and thinking about your fellow citizens that I just think is life changing."

- James Forman Jr., Yale Law School

"Never underestimate the difference the soul that cares and is willing to serve can have."

Charles, long-time member of the Graterford Think Tank at SCI-Phoenix

“The Inside-Out program changed my life.

I truly believe it was the most important class I’ve ever taken during my college career.”

- Outside Student

“There is power in the collective actions of good people.
Inside-Out lets us find
the source of that power.
We do it.
We grow.
We change the world
one class at a time.”

Did you know?

The idea for Inside-Out came from a conversation in 1995 between Lori Pompa and Paul, a man who was incarcerated at SCI-Dallas in Pennsylvania.

04/06/24

A Special Presentation and Discussion on Issues of Crime and Justice

WHO: Lori Pompa, Founder and Executive Director
The Inside-Out Prison Exchange Program®

WHAT: An opportunity to consider a different way of looking at justice issues and new ideas for social change.

WHERE: CARDINAL CLUBHOUSE THEATER

WHEN: THURS., MAR 28, 2024 at 1:30PM

WHY: We need to think about things in new ways in order to make real change.

HOW: Bring your questions and perspectives to what we hope will be an interesting and dynamic exchange.

The Inside-Out Prison Exchange Program® facilitates dialogue across difference — through exchanges involving people on both sides of prison walls — leading to individual transformation and social change.
